

Snowshoeing Experience

Overview

Explore the beautiful Rockies in the winter months. Follow Snowshoe trails as your trek through the snow to witness the spectacular surroundings. Snowshoe Experiences are arranged to suit your group's ability. Upon arrival at the Trailhead, guests will be prepped for the adventure ahead.

Event Details

Your group will meet the RMA team at the specified location and prepare for the hike, by attaching snowshoes and listening to safety protocols. TrailRiders may be provided for individuals with mobility challenges (snow & trail dependent). Smaller groups may be formed based on skill level. Once the group is ready, they will tackle the trail.

Requirements

Skill Level: We welcome all levels of snowshoe hikers, from novice to experienced.

Gear: Please make sure your guests come equipped for all weathers. We recommend the following: warm layers, waterproof jacket and pants, toque, gloves. RMA does not provide snowshoes.

Other: Each individual will be required to be fitted for ski boots, skis, and helmets prior to lesson time. All guests must complete health information and waiver forms. Caregivers and Program leads must complete a Waiver.
